

Recognitions at the November 2006 State Board of Education Meeting

- Ad Hoc Student Advisory Committee

The State Board has established an Ad Hoc Student Advisory Committee to provide members with feedback on important education issues, legislation, and policies from a student point of view. This committee also gives students an opportunity to participate in the decision-making process that affects public schools. Three of the student advisors were welcomed at the November meeting. Shown here are (left to right) State Board member Mike Forrester; Jacob Anderson of Broome High School, Spartanburg School District Three; State Superintendent Inez Tenenbaum; David Oberst of Georgetown High School, Georgetown County School District; Keith Davis of Calhoun County High School, Calhoun County School District; and State Board members Patsy Pye and Joe Isaac. Student advisors not pictured are Cecelia Sade P. McCoy of C.A. John Preparatory Academy, Richland School District One; and Laura Brooke Smith of Manning High School, Clarendon School District Two.
